

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP IN THE DIGITAL AGE

A CIVIC YOUTH SUMMER BOOT CAMP

1

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

- Increase your awareness of civic issues in your community at a local & global level
- Earn valuable leadership, debate, critical thinking, and presentation skills.
- Understand better our changing world of information, technology, and media.

2

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

U.S. high school and freshman/sophomore college students who are:

- able to access a device (computer, laptop, tablet) with Wi-Fi / Ethernet connection capabilities.
- interested in engaging deeply with current issues and making an impact!

3

WHEN DOES THE PROGRAM START?

- July 17th to July 27th 2020
- 10:00 AM Pacific | 1:00 PM Eastern
- Five live Zoom sessions will be held on 7/17, 7/20, 7/22, 7/24, and 7/27.
- The program utilizes the Canvas learning management platform to deliver supplemental materials & assignments.

4

WHAT IS THE COST TO ATTEND?

- Charge: $0 / Free
- Priority Deadline: Friday June 26, 2020
- Final Deadline: Thursday July 2, 2020
- Form Link: Bit.ly/digital-citizen-summer
- An official certificate of completion is available for participants of all five live synchronous sessions online.

5

WHO ARE THE INSTRUCTORS?

Yi Ding | CSU Northridge Faculty Librarian

- Online Instruction Coordinator, CSUN Oviatt Library
- Inquiry Specialist (Former), UCLA Library
- 2020 American Library Association Emerging Leader

Jeannie Chen | UCLA Global Classroom Teacher

- 2019-20 Teaching Aide at Jinling High School (Nanjing, China)
- 2017 Association of Research Libraries Kaleidoscope Scholar
- 2016 American Library Association Spectrum Scholarship Awardee

CONTACT US FOR MORE INFORMATION:

YI DING - XIAODINGYI@UCLA.EDU

JEANNIE CHEN - JINGPIANO@UCLA.EDU